

Data Drop	What assessment(s) informs this data drop?	How is this assessment marked, moderated and feedback to students?
1	Assessments informing the data drop-baseline and endpoint assessments in students' workbooks show the progress students make during the lesson. At the end of each unit, students are set a multiple-choice quiz as homework to assess their knowledge and understanding of key concepts.	Students see their scores and any mistakes made in their answers. VIP teachers can see their students' marks and the VIP co-ordinator can use this data to add / amend to the schemes of work to address common errors and gaps in students' knowledge.

Homework	How is homework used to support learning?	How is homework marked and fed back to students
	Homework: end of unit multiple-choice quizzes are set as VIP homework and assesses students' learning.

In class and in books	What strategies are used to deliver effective feedback and assessment to students during lessons?	What marking and feedback would we expect to see in an exercise book or folder in this subject?
	In class / in books: baseline and endpoint assessments in students' workbooks show the progress students make during the lesson.
